Greenville East collects more than $1000 in school supplies for Salvation Army

Janice Butler, service project chair for Greenville East, and volunteer Jennifer Chamberlin coordinated the club's July service project of collecting school supplies for the Salvation Army. Club members and area merchants contributed more than $1000 worth of supplies that will be given to needy children in mid-August. Pam Garcia from the Salvation Army was on hand to receive the supplies at the July 27 club meeting.
